USTDA'S MISSION AND TOOLS

The U.S. Trade and Development Agency connects America's private sector to infrastructure projects in developing and middle-income countries. We achieve success by funding feasibility studies, technical assistance and pilot projects that integrate the innovation and expertise of American companies. USTDA also connects overseas buyers with U.S. sellers by hosting reverse trade missions, industry conferences and expert workshops across the globe.

Proven Results For Alaska Businesses

Juneau, AK

USTDA connected an Alaska-based telecommunications company to new project opportunities in Guinea. U.S. public and private sector leaders connected with project developers from Sub-Saharan Africa at a USTDA-hosted finance conference in Cape Town, South Africa, resulting in seven U.S. firms gaining new business in the region, including the Alaska-based firm that provided consultation services for the Port of Kamsar.
